FAMILY GROUP RECORD

JOSEPH MOULTON

Joseph Moulton was born on August 22, 1845, in Irchester, England, to Thomas Moulton (born 1810, died 1892) and Sarah Denton (born 1818, died 1888).

He was baptized on April 28, 1855, by his father in a meadow creek and was confirmed at the water's edge by his father.

On May 3, 1856, he emigrated to America with his father, mother and seven brothers and sisters.

They crossed the plains in the James G. Willie handcart company. As he was 11 years old, he had to help care for the younger children and made many trips back and forth through icy streams to carry smaller children across to safety.

They arrived in Salt Lake on November 9, 1856, where they remained three weeks, then moving to Provo, Utah. In 1860 they moved to Heber, where they made their home on the northeast corner of the intersection at Second North and Second West.

During the Blackhawk War he acted as a scout for weeks at a time, and also as a guard at home.

In 1866, Joseph Moulton, George M. Giles, Frank Fraughton, Martin Oaks and Orson Hicken journeyed to the Missouri River to meet immigrants. The family Joseph brought back was named Draper, and they became the founders of the area bearing that name.

In December, 1868, Joseph married Elizabeth Giles in the Endowment House. Their first home was a log cabin on the southeast corner of the intersection at Second East and Center St. He built the cabin and made all the furniture himself.

To them were born nine children.

On February 26, 1876, Joseph married two Danish immigrant sisters, Annie Katrina and Jensine Marie Jensen. Their first home was the granary of their husband. Later he built the home owned by Afton Barnes Lee, which burned down a few years ago. Elizabeth had six children and Jensine (Aunt Mary) had eight.

In 1885, Joseph was called on a mission to West Virginia. After serving a year, President Hatch sent for him to come home, feeling that his family needed him.

There was a great deal of agitation against polygamy from its first public announcement. Because of opposition to plural marriage the Edmund Tucker bill was passed in 1887, which made it illegal for Joseph Moulton, last of our hand-cart pioneers, funeral services were held in the Stake Tabernacle on Saturday with Bishop Walter Montgomery of the Heber First Ward in charge.

Former Bishop, Fredrick Crook gave a breif history of the life of Joseph Moulton, born in England, crossed the plains in the ill fated Willy Co., and after much suffering and hardship they landed in Salt Lake Utah on November 9, 1856. The family came to Heber in 1860 and this has been their place of residence since that time. Joseph had little opportunity for schooling, but was far above the average in intelligence; an authority on the scriptures, and served in many positions of trust, and with credit both to himself and those he served or re represented.

David Hicken, a life long acquaintance of the Moulton family, said that the departed had been willing, not only to die but also to live for the gospel, a man who was truthful, faithful and honest in his dealings with his fellowmen; and one who had perfect faith in the resurrection and that all shall receive their just reward for what has been done here, no more and no less.

President David Broadbent said he felt like the Patriarch of the county had been taken away and that his testimony will be missed among the people. In years, brother Moulton was the oldest man in the county, and yet he was the youngest old man in the county or community, for he continued learning and studying even unto the end of life. Speaker said it is lifes service which really counts and commended the example of the deseased to his numerous posterity.

Bishop Walter Montgomery said that the death of Joseph Moulton marked the passing of one of the most faithful members of the Heber First Ward, one who always performed his duty, was generous both temporarly and spiritually and had absolutely no fear of death.
